Heritage accommodation

Bordered by landscaped gardens, Cockatoo Island's holiday houses and apartments combine authentic heritage character with modern amenities and harbour views.

Heritage Houses

Built circa 1913, our two Federation-style heritage houses represent an ideal R&R setting. Set amidst lush gardens on the upper island, with views of Hunters Hill, each house has room to accommodate up to 12 guests.

Harbour View Apartments

Situated near Biloela Lawn on the upper island, our three Harbour View Apartments each boast a large entertaining balcony overlooking Sydney Harbour.

Garden Riverview Apartment

Built in 1916, our two bedroom Garden Riverview Apartment boasts views of Woolwich and Hunters Hill as well as a large deck and an enclosed garden, making it ideal for entertaining company.

Fire Station Studio

Formerly the island's fire station, this tastefully restored studio apartment on the lower island boasts an open plan living area and offers panoramic views across Parramatta River.
