Harbour Trust

 Australian Government
Sydney Harbour Federation Trust

- All bookings require at least one person who is over 18 years old staying with them who is to be responsible for all persons under the reservation.
- Wet weather: Security will implement the island's wet weather plans in the event of a significant weather event (e.g. heavy rain, wind or lightning) or if the campground floods. This may include leading guests to a sheltered area until a storm has passed or relocating guests whose personal tents are inadequate for the weather conditions. Management can offer campers rainchecks in the event of extreme weather or flooding. In the event of general wet weather, the campground will remain open and campers will not be issued rainchecks. For all other requests for rainchecks and extensions, our normal terms and conditions still apply (see point above). Cockatoo Island's wet weather warning system alerts management to the risk of extreme weather, irrespective of the public weather forecast. In reaching any decision on rainchecks, management will consult the weather warning system, consider pre-weather events in the 48 hours prior to a camper's arrival, and assess the weather on the day of their arrival. Should management decide to offer campers a raincheck, they will be contacted on the morning of their arrival (approx. 10am).
- Portable barbecues and compressed or liquid fuel is not permitted. There are excellent facilities at the campground kitchen and island barbecues.
- Please minimise waste and take your rubbish with you off the island.
- Alcohol: Alcohol may not be brought onto the island if you are staying in the campground. The cafe, Cockatoo Overboard, is a licensed area and has alcohol for purchase under NSW Office of Liquor, Gaming and Racing (OLGR) of Responsible Service of Alcohol. All alcohol must be consumed in the campground licensed area. Accommodation reservation number and full name needs to be provided when purchasing alcohol. Limited amounts of alcohol are guided by Cockatoo Overboard's On Premises Liquor Licence mandate. It is the responsibility of the camping reservation holder to ensure all guests abide by all alcohol consumption rules and it is the responsibility of all guests to act responsibly when consuming alcohol to avoid any unsafe or anti-social behaviour. Failure to do so could result in removal from the island. When consuming alcohol it is recommended to have plenty of food and water available. For more information, see the Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\) page on our website.
- Please be aware that after 10.30pm noise restrictions take effect and outside noise needs to be kept to a minimum. Amplified music from iPhones and portable speakers is not permitted in the campground area.
- There is no ATM on the island, most outlets accept EFTPOS.
- No animals, except for assistance animals (as defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1992), are permitted.
- Please remember, the campground is open to the general public and readily accessible. The island has 24-hour security but you are urged not to leave valuables unattended. You may wish to bring a small padlock for your tent or keep valuables with you at all times.

COVID-19 POLICY (AS AT 16/05/2023)

Due to the current climate, we have modified our Terms and Conditions (T&Cs) to give accommodation guests some peace of mind about booking with us as well as the ability to modify their reservations in certain circumstances.

This policy relates to bookings with an arrival date no more than 30 days in advance. The Cockatoo Island accommodation team may withdraw this policy with 30 days' notice at which time our normal terms and conditions will apply.

a. General Changes and amendments

Bookings can be amended no later than 5 days prior to arrival. General changes can be made to any reservation up to 5 days prior to arrival. An amendment fee of $10 is payable for all changes. Date changes can be made, or a credit note issued which will be valid for 6 months. There are no restrictions on redemption only that any new booking will be subject to the rates at that time and availability.

Note: Credit vouchers issued will not be extended under any circumstances (including limited accommodation availability for selected nights) unless we are restricted by government lockdowns. In the event of a lockdown, we will extend the voucher for an amount of time equal to the duration of the lockdown.

b. Testing Positive or Self Isolation – cancellations

Changes to bookings due to a Positive COVID-19 test or individual Isolation requirements are permitted at any time.

All reservations can be cancelled due to a positive COVID-19 tests or the requirement to isolate, AND no amendment fees or penalty will apply. You must be able to provide evidence that the reservation holder is COVID-19 positive or is required to undertake Isolation. They can choose to move your booking to another date or elect to receive a credit voucher, which will be valid for 6 months. There are no restrictions on when a credit voucher can be used within the 6-month timeframe; however, any new reservation will be subject to the rates and availability at the time of booking.

Note: Credit vouchers issued will not be extended under any circumstances (including limited accommodation availability for selected nights) unless we are restricted by government lockdowns. In the event of a lockdown, we will extend the voucher for an amount of time equal to the duration of the lockdown.

c. Refunds – Permitted for COVID-19 conditions only.

Should a guest request to receive a refund they are able to do so less a 20% cancellation fee. Refunds are only available for reservations that are affected by cancellations due to positive COVID-19 test or a requirement to isolate, and evidence must be provided.
