Turbine Shed

Turbine Shed
This venue is ideal for	Gala dinners, exhibitions, music performances, markets and festivals, launches.
Description	The atmospheric Turbine Shed is the largest building on Cockatoo Island and, at the time of it finished construction in 1946, was the largest building in the Southern Hemisphere. With its raw industrial character, exposed steel structure, soaring ceilings with overhead gantry cranes and bare concrete floors, this immense industrial building makes an impressive event setting. The Turbine Shed is a level 280m walk from either wharf, and can be combined with a unique arrival route via one of the island's convict-built tunnels.
Size	Area - 1750m <sup>2</sup> Ceiling Height - 17m (maximum), 15.5m to gantry
