Guidance for visitors taking photographs at Harbour Trust sites

We want to encourage visitors to photograph our unique sites. Visitors are welcome to take photographs for personal use at their leisure, subject to normal safety and privacy considerations.

However if your photography is for commercial use you will need agreement from our Licensing Officer, which generally incurs a fee. If you need advice on whether your photography is considered as commercial or personal use, please call our office during business hours and ask to speak to our Licensing Officer

We kindly request that you confirm your photography is for personal use by completing and signing the declaration below:

I* undertake not to use photographs taken at the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust site on for commercial purposes. Photographs taken on the above date are for personal use only.
